THE EDITORIAL

Finally it is done. You hold the third issue of ART PRESS in your hands. When Dave - the former editor of this magazine - left the scene, I thought ART PRESS would never be released again. But I never stopped collecting and swapping hand-drawn graphics and covers for all these dark years. And after a break of nearly three years I made up my mind and put together this little issue. To be honest I did it as much for myself as I did it for you, the audience, because graphics will always be one of my passions. But now take a close look at this issue and experience a selection of the best artworks I collected over the last five (!) years. It is only a selection because I received many more pictures and logos, but could not use them due to the limited space. Most of the graphics are still exclusive, even after such a long break. I decided to put in only graphics that were drawn by sceners, no professional stuff was included this time. Some of the graphics are really old, like for instance Elegance's drawings (1992!), but I like them so much that I used them anyway. Others date from 1996 or arrived just recently like Splatterhead's logo. I want to thank all the people involved in the project (find their names in the hall of fame on page 2) and I promise you all that there will be an issue four of ART PRESS.
